STRAY VOLTAGE

Naveed Farro

Where are you from, brother?

Where are you from, brother? (2023) is a virtual reality experience set across the span of an UberPool journey. Within the film, cultural conflicts arise between the driver and passengers, who are from Iranian diaspora and Anglo-Australian backgrounds. The film explores the gaps in experience between first and second-generation refugees, and the racist attitudes of many white Australians.

Where are you from, brother? 2023, virtual reality film, 10:40.

NAVEED FARRO is an artist and filmmaker who is currently undertaking an MFA at Monash University of Art, Design and Architecture (MADA). He works across film, 3D media and sculpture to create immersive, affective screen encounters. Currently, he is interested in exploring how emerging imaging technologies, such as augmented reality smart glasses, can bridge gaps in access to spaces impacted by political unrest. Farro has a research background in film and the built environment, and also works as a Moving Image Designer at the National Gallery of Victoria.

STRAY VOLTAGE presents a discursive program of critically engaged moving image works focusing on experimental narrative-driven practice. Led by Katie Paine, Oliver Hull and Aaron Rees. STRAY VOLTAGE is supported by the City of Melbourne 2022 Annual Arts Grants Program.

KINGS Artist-Run is generously supported by City of Melbourne through the Arts and Creative Partnerships Program, and Burnley Brewing, Heaps Normal, Foreigner Brewing Co. and Little Brunswick Wine Co. through their ongoing drinks sponsorship.
