

KINGS

sam george
OHNO AGAIN (SAD SONG)

OCTOBER
16.10.25–09.11.25

Artist Run

Established in 2003, KINGS Artist-Run provides a location for contemporary art practice, supporting distinctive experimental projects by artists at all stages of their careers.

Open 12–5pm, Thursday – Friday
1 – 5pm, Saturday – Sunday
69 Capel Street,
West Melbourne VIC 3003

GALLERY TWO

sam george

ohno again (sad song)

for 12 years, ive been trying to write a sad song i thought it had to be a sad country song it was too much
when i realised sad had to be just sad no action
kinda stuck in a lost feeling seemingly possible to get to i wrote a composition of trying trying didn't work until it did or didn't maybe
like finding the 'oh no' of an instrument

Artwork details:

ohno again (sad song), 2025, steel, plywood, shirt, posca, wood panels with oil pencil, composition on paper, performers (Sophie Di Tempora, Andrew Kershaw and Jackson McLaren, 16th October 6-8pm), 5500 x 3800 mm sam george created my favourite artwork ever. I may not have the ability to perceive auras, but I have a strong intuition that if auras were to exist, Sam's would be characterised by shades of blue, red, and yellow. I've heard one can make most anything with those colours. – F.C

sam george is an artist (for want of a better word) who wants to play in the bush league. She reveres idiocy and'll flummox you with some embarrassingly earnest attempt to roundhouse and share. Savour the blench – this is true daring. Remember that stupidity will bring us together as much as love will tear us apart. – M.G

sam george enjoys making, talking, thinking and occasionally feeling. Hanging out with great people is integral to her practice. She has a soft spot for this world but at times is very upset by it.